

Jasper

in June

A Vacationtime Superb

Icefield Peaks from a Highway Lookout

IN THE CANADIAN ROCKIES

Jasper for a JUNE VACATION

*You are ahead
of the crowds...*

that come into Jasper during July and August —
the height of the season.

Accommodation...

is more plentiful in June—you will have no trouble
finding the type of quarters you prefer.

Service...

is better, for we're not so busy in June, and we are able to give you a really personalized service, to stop for a friendly chat and tell you about the wonderful places to see in the Jasper region.

Weather...

is delightfully fresh and clear; the days are filled with early summer sunshine. It is never excessively hot in June, and you will sleep
like a babe through the cool mountain nights.

Longer Days...

to fill with holiday fun are yours in June, for the longest daylight hours of the whole year occur in June.

Sports and Recreation...

of all kinds are possible in June. The golf course is in perfect shape, and not crowded. You can also enjoy hiking, swimming, bathing in the pool, fishing,
cycling, late-spring skiing and sightseeing.

For Your Honeymoon...

Jasper is a beautiful and romantic setting for a honeymoon in June. If you are planning to be married in June, decide now on a wedding trip to lovely Jasper National Park — a scenic wonderland.

Jasper for a SEPTEMBER HOLIDAY

Less Crowded...

accommodation in hotels, cabins, restaurants, stores and recreational facilities assure you of added comfort and convenience. Children are back to school—the crowds are gone!

Trains, Buses and Planes...

have more space available for comfortable travel in September.

Service...

is naturally improved when there are fewer travellers to serve.

Weather...

is warm and sunny in September with little possibility of rain. The leaves are just beginning to take on their glorious fall coloring, and the mountains are sharply etched against a sky of brilliant blue.

Fishing...

is good, and it's a wonderful time for hiking and mountain climbing.

Big Game Hunting...

is thrilling in the fall. Jasper is the jumping-off point for the hunting area just outside the park—the finest big horn region on the continent!

Other Recreation...

such as golfing, riding, swimming, cycling, and, of course, sightseeing, may be enjoyed to the full in September.

Color Photography...

is an absorbing pastime when the mountain foliage is a riot of gorgeous autumn color. You'll get photographs that you will treasure for years to come.

... and Winter, too

Jasper boasts unexcelled alpine skiing in surrounding high country. Drop us a line if your holiday plans combine powder snow with mountain sunshine.

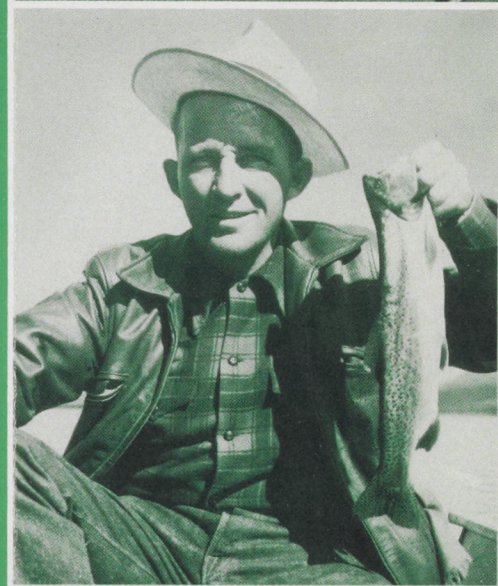

—C.N.R. Photo

June... Month of Romance

Yep! He's a fisherman, too.
Bing favors September.

Jasper's Golf Course is Famous

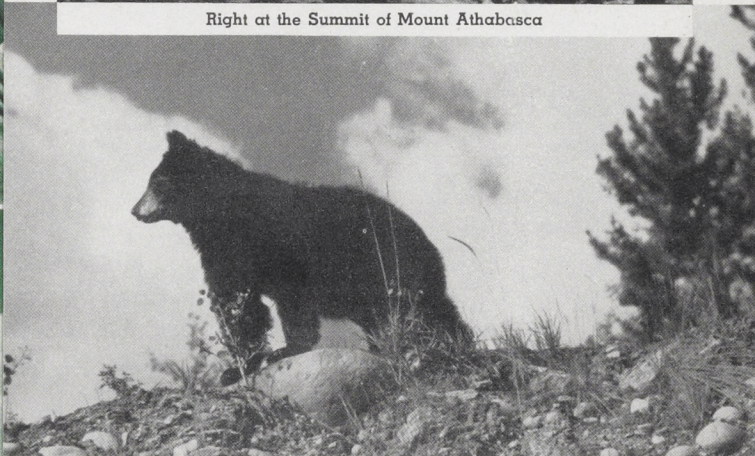

We invite you to Jasper
in JUNE or SEPTEMBER

Right at the Summit of Mount Athabasca

This Bruin Poses like a Professional

Jasper

in September

A Holiday to Remember

Trail Riding is Popular in the Fall

IN THE CANADIAN ROCKIES